DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and fifty-two, dedicate this book to WILLIAM SCHUETT
for his patient guidance and assistance the last two years as our class advisor.

We appreciate his help in the organization of our school paper, his careful supervision of this yearbook, and his co-operation in making our senior class trip possible.

We want to wish Mr. Schuett the best of everything in the future, and we want to thank him for everything in the past.

DECLARATION

We, the undersigned, do hereby declare that we are not aware of any person or persons who have been or are about to be admitted to the office of the Secretary of the State of New York, who are not qualified by law to hold such office.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

'THE BEST YEARS OF OUR LIVES'

One fine, bright September third of 1940, twenty-eight fine, bright kiddies presented themselves to the first grade teacher Mrs. Gathe. For many, that first day was the "beginning of the end"; for others it was a time of mounting excitement, a step forward into the "grown-up" world. Those first graders who were to someday make up the "grown-up" world were: Doris Bratten, Jane Calvert, Ronald Calvert, Eileen Chapman, Kenneth Campbell, Beverly Cook, Sharon Fletcher, George Franchis, Marchetta Harkness, Everett Kirchner, Jimmy Lindberg, Edward McCarty, Billy McDaniel, Tommy McIntyre, Betty Jean Noton, Terry O'Rourke, Betty Mae Paisley, Carl Paisley, Neil Schaible, Kathleen Sullivan, Clifford Vandervate, Dorothy Wunder, Margaret Wunder, Harold Simons, James Espe, Ludwig Albrecht, Jerald Belk and Dwayne Englund.

Many dropped out of school and moved away before second grade, but these vacancies were filled by many new students who moved to Hanover because of Craig Manor. Included in this second grade group under Miss Gibbs were some that are in our graduating class: Joanne Brandt, Barbara Harris, Ardith Conzett, and Pat Massie.

The third grade came as quite a shock to some, for they hadn't expected to pass from the second grade. As it was, in the third grade with Miss Koehn as our teacher, we received eleven new students, none of whom are still with us. There was one student, however, who will always remain, with us who know him, in our memories. Georgie Franchis was our problem child, and the sight he presented as he sat behind his raised desk top, swearing and crying, was one not to be forgotten. By this time, too, we had classes in the new wing, and were kept busy with daily milk periods, war-bonds, and trying to use our entire arm when we wrote instead of just our wrist.

These activities were carried on into the fourth grade under Miss Wagner, and among other students, Geraldine Wescott, Clifford Unangst, Phillip Ferguson, Nancy Ireland and Fred Miller joined us. Oh, happy day! What tender memories: snowball fights, with the girls loving every minute they were getting their faces washed by a boy; cops and robbers—the boys the cops, the girls the robbers, result—a chase; the vacant seat where Freddie sometimes sat whenever he felt like coming to school; Eileen Chapman, the champion marble-player.

Then suddenly 1944 was upon us and with it fifth grade under Miss Sampson for the first semester and Miss Meier for the second. More class hikes to Cottonwood; more picnics behind the school; and new classmates.

Under Mrs. Seeley in the sixth grade, we spent a good deal of our time with art—painting, drawing, weaving. During that year we made a trip through the woolen mill, and began to wonder just what our boys were coming to! There were numerous after-school sessions, and a strong desire on the boys' part to get even with the girls who told on them. It was in the sixth grade that Therese Jestice and Wilbur Smith, a colorful character, entered our class. The picture of Wilbur, a rather big boy, imitating the other boys in Tarzanic antics by jumping from a tree-top to a limb below him which instead of springing, cracked in two, is a memory for those who saw it.

Seventh grade came around with Mrs. Keene as our teacher; included in the arrival of new classmates was Joyce Thompson. That year was one of preparation in getting us ready for eighth grade which prepared us for high school. There were the usual picnics, parties and crushes, and finally 1944 rolled around with the eighth grade in tow. Mrs. Morrison as our teacher, and the careful cautions and suggestions given us for our coming high school years. Darla Larson and Carol Randecker joined us and as the days for eighth grade graduation drew near we remembered our previous school days.

But the day did come in 1948 when thirty-four meek students, representing the class of '52 began their high school careers. Of course at first we were unsure of ourselves and it took a little time to get used to high school. Especially after Freshman initiation we thought we'd never be the same again, but we bore in mind as a consolation, that someday we would be seniors. High School did prove exciting and we became avid followers of our home town sports exhibitions. In that year Virgil Curtis, Gladys Ready, Neva Boldt, Harold Haggerty, Mary Haug, and Betty Whittington entered high school with us. We chose Miss Sword as our class advisor. We had a new principal also, O. L. Halle, who replaced G. E. Stutzman, our principal all during our grade school days.

In our Sophomore year we chose Miss Ryan as our class advisor and welcomed two new classmates: Mary Alice Finley, and Sang Shin Yun, a Korean boy who added to our experiences with his interesting tales of his country. Another point of high interest for many of the Sophomores was the trip to Chicago, taken by the Biology class, to visit the museums and the aquarium.

Our Junior year proved quite a hectic, happy, hurried, busy time for all of us, for we had a great many things to accomplish: we sold refreshments at all of our home football and basketball games; we put on a play "Brother Goose" under the direction of Mr. Schuett, our class advisor; we sponsored the Junior-Senior Prom and used "Dreamer's Holiday" as our theme; many of us helped in the writing of our school paper and we enjoyed a fun-filled picnic at the Palisades Park as our last get-together of our Junior Year. Bill Mercer helped us with all these things as he joined us the second semester.

And now our Senior Year is here and the memories it has left us will be cherished right along with all the rest. This year we had no new students and again chose Mr. Schuett as our class advisor. This yearbook has taken up a good share of our time; we sponsored a play "Oh, Promise Me"; we played the mighty Seniors over the insignificant Freshmen on Initiation day; our boys figured prominently in both football and basketball; we had a Christmas Dance, record dances, bake sales, a book sale, and a wonderful trip to Washington, D. C.

So ends our Senior Year, but looking back on our high school days and the joys they held in their Proms, parties, dances, picnics and friendships; the work they held in their magazine sales, plays and studies, and the memories they held in all that we ever did and accomplished and gained—we the Senior Class of 1952 have regret that they've gone, we have happiness for the experiences we've shared, for the friendships we've formed, we have gratitude for the guidance shown us from that first day of school when we embarked on a great adventure to our last day of school when we embarked on an even greater adventure—that of facing the future on our own.

- I, Kathleen Sullivan, do will Harold Haggerty to anyone who wants him.
- I, Therese Jestice, do will my singing voice to Marilyn Mielke.
- I, Eileen Chapman, do will my fouling techniques in basketball to Mary Shafer. (Not that she needs any new ones.)

"GREAT EXPECTATIONS"

May 23, 1972

Dear Mista Schuett:

In answer to your inquirin letter about the class of '52, I have only one comment, "There ain't much to say." Anyways I'm sendin you these here clippins from the Hanover Journal in the hopes that they'll kinda give you an idea of how them kids left a mark on the world.

This here front page article by Kathy, denouncin the Democrat Party is one of the series she has written since her marriage to wealthy Car King Ken Campbell, the new president of General Motors.

Here's an advertisement for that new rival of that old picture "A Place in the Sun." Looks like Ludwig has taken Montgomery Clift's part and Marchetta plays the opposite role.

Here's a sad note of local news. Our former athlete, Eileen Chapman, broke her jawbone while cheerleading for the University of Illinois.

I see here that Neil has become Hanover's most eligible bachelor again since his divorce from his eighth wife. He never did understand wimmin.

Here's another item by that Mary Alice Haggerty probing another Civil War. She's even made Harold change sides. He's now a tobacco auctioneer in West Virginia.

More darned advertisements in this paper. This one here shows Miss Nancy Ireland endorsing Copenhagen. She won a contest last year for the farthest tobacco spit in the country.

You see that well built muscular physique modeling that pair of "Big Smith" overalls, well, that is Darla. Everyone said she had a model figure and she has proved it.

Yes and here's Mary Haug, the modern Aunt Jemima. Mary's face is seen on almost every flour sack in our nation and she has made a million.

Barb Harris is really making money with those new hair dyes she has developed. That bright red shade was originally used during her high school days.

This line here explains why Ardith was always so quiet. She's been saving her voice and it has made her a success as winner of that talkin marathon out in California.

Says here they've raided some joint called "Ciro's" again. That famous burlesque dancer "Betty Jean" escaped and is believed to be hiding at her home in Hanover.

You'll probably be interested to know that a new Superintendent of H. H. S. has been named. It is Virgil Curtis, a former member of that class.

Well, the "Mother of the Year" has finally been chosen. It is Mrs. Fred Miller (the former Betty Whittington). She has claimed a definite victory after giving birth to sextuplets. The proud father is president of "The Unemployment Clubs of Ameica."

Our Illinois Congressman, Bill Mercer, is being investigated by the Congressional Committee because he bought a mink coat for one feminine member of his class. Bey Cook by name. It's supposedly a bribe to get her to set a wedding date.

You must remember that filling station known as Nick & Jims, well it has been sold to a newly married couple and the name has been changed to Phil & Gladys. We always thought they were a cute couple.

This paper says there is a circus coming and Gerry Wescott is the daring wolf trainer. She must have a way with wolves.

That world renowned traveler Neva Boldt is home for a visit. She's been in every port in the nation with her sailor husband and says Apple River Bay is still the best.

They've started a new column here called "Lonely Hearts"—It is Joanne Brandt's advice to all love problems. Experience being the best teacher, she is truly successful.

History was made last night with the unveiling of the girl in Old Gold's dancing cigarette pack. To think all these years it has been our own Pat Massie.

The radio review says to be sure to listen to National Barn Dance next Saturday because those new yodeling sensations Therese Jestice and Joyce Thompson will be the star attractions.

One last advertisement here states anyone wishing to learn to drive tractors, milk cows or any of the other various farm chores may contact either Mrs. Jane Flack or the former Carol R. They claim a great deal of experience on such matters.

Sincerely yours.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

"THE HAPPY YEARS"

The Junior Class of 1953 entered H. H. S. with twenty-three members. The class officers were elected for their busy year: President, Jack Robinson; Vice President, Roger Hedeman; Secretary-Treasurer, Mary Potter; Student Council member, Nora Ballein; and Mr. Frank L. Burns, Jr., as the class advisor.

On December 6, 1951, we presented our Junior Class play "Arsenic and Old Lace" which was a success and a lot of fun besides.

The Junior Class boasts of four members, Jack, Roger, Albert, and Bill on the first team basketball squad. None of the Juniors were out for football.

In order to raise money for our class treasury, we sold refreshments at basketball and football games, and had candy sales.

Our class also wrote the history of Hanover from 1925-1951, and had it printed to sell.

Quite a few of the Juniors are on the staff of the "Hanover Highlights," our school paper.

In collaboration with the Seniors we sponsored a Sports Night. A good time was had by everyone.

Last but not least, we are making plans for the Junior and Senior Prom, which will be held May 24, 1952. The theme is, "The Stork Club."

We, the class of 1953, wish our fellow Seniors the "best of luck."

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

"THE DIFFICULT YEARS"

September 4th, twenty-eight gay Sophomores started school with Mr. Richard Wojan as our class advisor. Since this was our second year, we felt that we weren't quite so green and think we have proved that.

The class officers elected were: President, Keith Croffoot; Vice President, Don Crawford; Secretary-Treasurer, Pat Heckler; and Student Council member, Norma Jean Kaufman.

The four boys out for basketball were Max, Jack, Keith and Leroy. Bruce was the manager. There were six boys out for football; Bob, Bruce, Max, Jack, Larry, and Keith.

Two of the cheerleaders are also from this class; Yvonne and Norma Jean.

Our class hasn't thought too much about money-making schemes, but we did have a record dance and a bake sale. Both were successful.

We, the Sophomore Class, wish all the 1952 Seniors "the best of everything in their new careers."

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

"THE GREEN YEARS"

The Freshman Class made its first appearance at Hanover High School, September 4, 1951. Forty-three students were enrolled with Mr. Robert Hires as advisor. We were subjected to the usual jokes about "green freshies," but we soon proved to be very important.

The class officers were: President, Charlene Mitchell; Vice President, Carol Vandervate; Secretary-Treasurer, Kay Miller; and Student Council member, Alex Paisley.

Alex, Keith, Roger, and Eddie were the four boys out for basketball. Alex and Eddie were also on the football team with Keith as manager.

Phyllis and Jeanine were chosen as cheerleaders.

Activity for the Freshman has been more or less limited, but we did have a record dance on Washington's birthday.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

"MAKE MINE MUSIC"

The music instructor of the Hanover schools is Mr. R. J. Larsen, who comes to Hanover from Clinton, Iowa, four days a week. Mr. Larsen attended Iowa State Teachers' College, has a BA degree from the University of Iowa, and has done graduate work there, also. This is his fifteenth year of teaching, and his fourth year at Hanover.

The music program in grades two through six includes two singing periods, a theory class and two music appreciation classes each week.

The seventh and eighth grades are divided into two groups—boys and girls—and have singing classes on alternate days. Mrs. Morrison is the accompanist.

Class lessons on band instruments are offered to all students who are in the fourth grade or above. When a person is ready, he is promoted to the Beginner's Band.

The Beginner's Band members are mainly fourth and fifth graders. There are 26 people in this band. They practice during the noon hour three days a week. The Beginner's Band, in uniform, presented a program at the January Band Booster's meeting.

The Advanced Band numbers 34 this year. Last year this band received a first division rating in our district. The officers for this year are: Jill Robinson, President; Neil Schaible, Vice President; and Edith Peschang, Secretary-Treasurer.

The Pep Band is led by Edith Peschang. It played for several home football games and all of the home basketball games this season.

There are 54 girls in the high school girls' chorus. The group sang at the Open House in November, presented a cantata "Chimes of the Holy Night"—Holton, at Christmas time, and entered the district music contest at Fulton in April. Betty Jean Noton is the accompanist.

This year, as in the past several years, many students from Hanover High School performed at the music contest. This year there were five vocal soloists, five instrumental soloists and a vocal sextette entered at the Fulton contest on March 15. The vocal solists were: high voice—Marilyn Mielke and Mary Shafer; medium voice—Eldora Sweeney; low voice—Pat Kehl and Miriam Leidinger. Instrumental soloists were: Betty Jean Noton—clarinet; Edith Peschang—cornet; Jill Robinson—baritone; and Marilyn Mielke and Betty Jean Noton—piano.

Those in the sextette were: Therese Jestice and Eldora Sweeney—sopranos; Marilyn Mielke and Edith Peschang—second sopranos; Mary Haug and Jill Robinson—altos. Mary Shafer was accompanist.

The accompanists were Therese Jestice, Marilyn Mielke, Betty Noton, Jill Robinson, and Mary Shafer.

The Band Booster's Club was organized in February 1950. The officers for this year are: William Crawford, President; Melvin Callahan, Vice President; Mrs. Jack McIntyre, Secretary; and Mrs. Maynard Mitchell, Treasurer. Some of the things that this organization has done are: purchased new uniforms for the Advanced Band, purchased a glockenspiel, and paid the transportation for the band to the state music contest at the University of Illinois.

HOMECOMING

"QUEEN FOR A DAY"

Friday night, October 26, 1951, was Homecoming at Hanover High School. Joanne Brandt, Senior, was crowned queen between halves by Fred Miller, president of the student council.

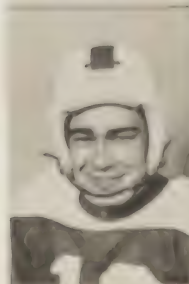

Hanover beat Hazel Green, 44-18, in the Blackhawk six-man football league. The new lights for night football and baseball were dedicated between halves on this same night.

"PEOPLE WILL TALK"

1952

1951-52 SCHOOL CALENDAR

"FAREWELL TO YESTERDAY"

- September 4—School days, School days—
 7—Class elections of officers', without any campaign speeches.
 18—Magazine sales began. What's this about cut-throat competition?
 21—Our first football game at Gratiot was a big success—we won.
 28—Freshman initiation and party. Aren't we devils?
- October 29—The new lights spurred our boys on to another football victory over Kirkland.
 2—A glass blowing Lyceum program. Wonder how they'd do with bubble gum?
 4—Our "unconquered" changed all that, when they lost to Shullsburg in football.
 5—Sophomore dance with Eddy Howard and all the greats—on records.
 6—Band Boosters needed "boosting," so they had their day.
 9—The Beauties and the Beasts were all dressed up for Senior pictures.
 10—Individual pictures taken. This is MGM or something?
 11-12—Teachers' Institute at Galena and Warren left us "fun and fancy free."
 12—Not so "fun and fancy free" were we after our football loss to South Wayne.
 19—There were hopes that the football loss at Benton wouldn't prove habit-forming.
 26—Homecoming: dance, parade, and a football win over Hazel Green besides.
 30—The football loss to Erie proved our last defeat—it was our last game.
- November 9—The Senior class play went down in the history of the theater—way down.
 14—The boys were all smiles at the election of cheer-leaders.
 16—Open House where we displayed the fruits of our labors.
 22-23—Thanksgiving Vacation which made us doubly thankful.
 30—Lost our first basketball game to Acquin, disproving of "beginners' luck."
- December 4—Milledgeville beat us in basketball, but we kept smiling?
 6—The critics' reviews of the Junior class play were excellent—Juniors were critics.
 7—A basketball loss to East Dubuque; we'll smile if it kills us!
 11—Lost to Thomson by one heart-breaking point.
 14—Lost to Warren by quite a few heart-breaking points.
 18—Basketball defeat to Chadwick; it wasn't our night.
 19—Santa, Mr. Hirst in disguise, visited the high school at its Christmas party.
 20—You mean we lost to Elizabeth? Yes.
 21—A good time was had by all at the Senior Christmas Dance.
- Dec. 22-Jan. 1—A much anticipated Christmas vacation arrived.
- January 2—Back to School!
 4—A one point loss to Stockton, but we smiled—with tears in our eyes.
 8—We knew we could do it! A win over Galena.
 11—At last the "one-point" was to our advantage; we beat East Dubuque.
 15—Lost a close one to Thomson, but admitted it was a good game.
 17-18—Semester exams! Need I say more?
 18—Warren beat us—Oh, Rats!
 25—"Toiling, rejoicing, sorrowing"—work on this yearbook began.
 29—Still grinning, but wish there was more winning. Lost to Milledgeville.
- February 1—Lost to Elizabeth and had a dance afterwards to get away from it all.
 5—We can't win all the time, so we don't; a loss to Shullsburg.
 8—Basketball at Stockton proved a loss, but not a total one.
 11—The Alumni had "lady luck" as their cheerleader and so beat us.
 12—We received a birthday present on "Lincoln's Birthday"—no school.
 15—The Galena basketball game was a disappointment. This time we lost.
 19—Ditto at Chadwick.
 22—Got together for a "get together" at the Freshman record dance.
 23—Lost to Aquin again—Oh, well.
 28—The Lyceum program about electricity was "shocking."
- March 4—Lost to Milledgeville in the Illinois Regional Tournament at Lanark.
 14—Sport's Night brought out hidden athletic abilities in many.
 15—Hanover displayed its musical attributes at the "Solo and Group" contest in Fulton.
- April 5-6—More musical talent displayed at Fulton with "Chorus and Band" contests.
- May 11-14—Spring arrived and so did Easter vacation.
 2—Open House for the proud parents to see what their darlings have been up to 9-18—The Senior trip to Washington, D. C., was festive and fun filled.
 24—Evening out at the "Stork Club"—theme of the Junior-Senior Prom.
 25—Baccalaureate.
 28-29—School's out, School's out—with the end of semester exams.
 29—Commencement.

REVONAH

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

"OH, PROMISE ME!" by Pete Williams

Barry Hollis has just come into a large fortune left him in his late father's will, and although he has the reputation of being playboy, he is resolved to settle down. On the train taking him to his aunt's, with whom he makes his home, he falls in love with Gladys Vance. He then persuades his aunt to invite Gladys for a visit, but the invitation gets mixed with a note asking a Patsie Linden, a tough little dancer, for Barry's frat pin. Patsie arrives with her mother, an ex-burlesque queen, and threatens a breach of promise suit unless Barry marries her at once. Barry pretends that Anne Furber, the maid's daughter, is his wife and that they have a baby which Barry actually "borrowed" without the real mother's consent. Gladys also turns up on the scene and Barry has an awkward time trying to prove to Patsie that he is married and to Gladys that he isn't. Barry is finally arrested for kidnapping and all of his girl-friends leave him, except for one—Anne Furber.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"ARSENIC AND OLD LACE" by Joseph Kesselring

Arsenic and Old Lace is the story of two old maids in Brooklyn who consider it one of their charities to poison old people who are alone in the world. They live in an old house with their younger brother who believes himself to be Teddy Roosevelt. Their affairs are complicated by a maniacal murderer, a drunken plastic surgeon and a love interest. The problems are all satisfactorily adjusted by the arrival of the police and a representative from Happy Dale Sanitarium.
